AN Engliſh Veſſel is arrived here in two Days and a half from Barcelona; which is reckon'd to be as ſwift a Paſſage as has been known. Stockholm, July 24, O. S. On Thurſday the 18th of this Month the Nobles met, and came to a Reſolution that the Diet ſhould not be prorogued, but continue ſitting till the moſt neceſſary Affairs were diſpatched; and that then it ſhould be diſſolved and not be ſummoned again until the uſual Time, except the King's or the Nation's Affairs required a ſpeedier Meeting. The other Bodies of the States have conſented to this Reſolution. The Clergy indeed, at firſt, made ſome Difficulty, and were for the Diet's being prorogued till January: They thought by that Means to prevent a Committee's being appointed to examine into Eccleſiaſtical Affairs. Yeſterday Sentence was pronounced againſt M. Daleen and Captain Prang, who were accuſed of having tampered with the Peaſants, and of having put them upon Meaſures tending to introduce an Arbitrary Government here. M. Daleen is condemned to have his Head cut off, and his Body buried under the Gallows: The Captain to live upon Bread and Water for a Month, to be baniſhed the Country, and to have his Name Stuck upon the Gallows. The Diet has this Day confirmed the Sentence.
